FOR PRESIDENT,

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
CHARLES E. HUGHES, of New York.

TALKING about the panic in the United States is all bosh. There will be a teddy bear in every American home this Christmas.

REMEMBER when selecting presents for your friends that many bric-a-brac souvenirs of this Christmas may become mere junk next Christmas. Give something substantial and useful. Don't try to make a present of an automobile to everybody.

THE Canadian Manufacturer truly says: "If it were not for the free trade they have in England there would not be millions of starving poor; no emigration en masse; no necessity of special provision for work for the unemployed; no necessity for free meals at the public cost for hungry school children."

MANY Democrats are mad as a wet hen because the National Committee selected Denver as the place for holding the Presidential Convention next year. The Silver City will furnish a barrel of money and put up a hospitable time, but it is so far toward the setting sun that the smallest crowd ever in attendance at a National Convention will gather there. On the other hand, the Republican Convention at Chicago will have the largest attendance ever seen at such a meeting.

JIM HARGIS is said to be a rich man, but he is liable to beat ANDREW CARNEGIE dying poor if he continues to pay $8,000 and $5,000 apiece for the assassination of his multitude of enemies.

THE Republicans and the Democrats of Kentucky are both lining up their cohorts for their respective state conventions next year. A majority of the Republicans favor Louisville as the place of the meeting and next May as the month. The chances are that the Democratic State Convention will be held in June. It may be Louisville and it may not.

MEMBERS of the bar say it has been many years since Kentucky has had an Attorney General of the caliber of Judge JAMES BREATHITT, who will become the chief attorney of the Commonwealth January 7th. Members of the Democratic Campaign Committee assert that Judge BREATHITT was also a dangerous man on the stump, and forced the Democrats to explain in nearly every county he visited during the campaign. Of all the Republican speakers, the Democrats say, BRADLEY and BREATHITT were the most hurtful, and to Mr. BRADLEY is given the credit of having made the most effective campaign speech made by Republican or Democrat in the campaign.—Louisville Cor. Enquirer.

HE DIDN'T INJECT IT.
An elderly resident of Lynn, Mass., was talking about Mrs. Eddy, the head of the Christian Science Church. "When she lived here in Lynn," said the old man, "she conducted a temperance campaign for a time. She did a lot of good, though now and then she met with a rebuff. The story goes that a tramp once asked her for help. "I'll help you, my friend," said Mrs. Eddy, 'but first you must answer me one question. Do you or do you not drink beer?' "Why, lady," he said, 'ye cert'n'y don't think I squirt it into me arm wid a syringe!'"

A New Design IN Parlor Cabinets!
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

DELIVERS THE GOODS
Al G. Fields' Aggregation Delights Big Audience Last Evening
The Al G. Fields Minstrel Show at The Washington Theater last night fully sustained its reputation as the premier high-class burnt cork operatic production before the public.
The music, stage settings and scenery alone were worth the admission price and every feature of the production was on a scale of beauty, merit and magnificence which at once puts the Fields show in a class by itself.
The grand banquet scene picturing "Soc Taffy" in the Philippines and the burlesque speech-making "soared" to the height of the absurd and the laughable.
The presentation of Hades with the lid off was fine and the beautiful illustrated song, "The Night Before Christmas" was appropos and one of the most pleasing features seen on the Mayville stage in years.
A big house and a big show marks every visit of the Fields' Minstrels to Mayville.

PRODIGAL IN JAIL
Sad Plight of a Short Change Artist Who Does Not Look the Part
J. W. Shonts, arrested several days ago for petit larceny and attempting to short change several merchants in this city, was arraigned before Judge Whitaker yesterday afternoon and after hearing testimony in the case held him to the Circuit Court in the sum of $100 and in default was committed to Jail.
Shonts is rather prepossessing in appearance and evidently not an altogether hardened criminal—some mother's darling perhaps, whose absence from the Christmas festival board will cause her motherly heart to well in anguish and her son cry aloud: "O, where is my wandering boy tonight?"
Alone she sits waiting and watching for his return, a light in the window, perhaps, as a beacon star to guide and welcome him home.
How is it with the prodigal?
In his midnight vigil as he sits in his cell, memory goes back to his once happy home and to mother, and in moments of remorse and contrition, tears stain his cheek as he cries aloud: "Had I but heeded mother's gentle warnings I would not now be occupying a felon's cell."
In the ingubriousness of his surroundings echo seems to answer back, "Too late, too late."
This is a sad word to many a devoted and loving mother, whose heart yearns for her wayward boy.

POWERS FINISHES
Testimony and Ex-Senator Deboe on the Stand, Who Declared He Knew Nothing About the Case.
Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin at Georgetown yesterday morning resumed the cross-examination of Caleb Powers, charged with complicity in the murder of Senator William Goebel. The defendant seemed none the worse for the severe strain of the past two days, and appeared strong and cheerful. He was questioned regarding two letters written by him to Miss Sudie Snuffer at Williamsburg, in one of which he stated that he would rather fight than be robbed. In the second letter he maintained that he, as well as Charles Finley, was innocent of wrong-doing in the movement of the mountain army.
The prosecutor attempted to prove that he had offered Miss Snuffer money to leave the state, but the witness denied this.
Powers explained, after the Commonwealth had finished its cross-examination, that he meant to convey the meaning when stating they had kept men at Frankfort, the purpose of defending them in case the Legislature decided against them, that they believed that possession is nine points in the law, and felt that they should retain the offices until the higher Courts had passed upon the matter.
Powers was excused at 11:30 and was followed by former United States Senator W. J. Deboe, of Marion, Ky. Henry E. Youtsey claims he spoke to Deboe in connection with the assassination. Senator Deboe denied all knowledge of the conversation and said that he knew absolutely nothing about the plot to murder Senator Goebel.

CURED TO STAY CURED.

How a Maysville Citizen Found Complete Freedom From Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—From urinary disorders—From any disease of the kidneys, Be cured to stay cured. Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures. Maysville people testify. Here's one case of it.

A. W. McClanahan of A. W. and B. P. McClanahan, grocers, at 121 Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Maysville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse and worse all the time. I repeat that I can more confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Dispensary, today than I did in my former testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to any one who may inquire."

TOBACCO NOTES

Interesting Items Gathered From the Burley District

M. L. Kirkpatrick, President of the Farmers and Shippers Warehouse, expressed the general thought when he said: "The farmers are cutting off their noses to spite their faces. The American Tobacco Company can live on its dividends for many a day, but the growers know that tobacco is their main, and in many cases, their only crop."

Mr. Kirkpatrick has a plan by which he thinks the growers might get their prices without resorting to bloodshed. He said:

"Let each farmer keep a stock of tobacco one year ahead in his own warehouse or barn at home. Then when the American Tobacco Company or any other prospective purchaser desires to buy, they will have to pay the price the owner wants. That is one solution of the problem and a very practical one. I have heard the talk that there will be no crop next year. In case that comes true we will have no business for a year in Cincinnati. I am not going to close down, though, am going right ahead. I believe there will be a crop next year or I would not continue."

"Since the American Tobacco Company entered the field it has caused the tobacco market to become more uniform," remarked Mr. Kirkpatrick. "Before its advent tobacco went very high and dropped very low, but the American Tobacco Company's entrance made prices a trifle higher if anything. The Kentucky growers may get an average of 15 cents a pound; I do not know."

Ripley Bee.

The night riders have again made Brown county a visit. On last Thursday night some one posted notices on the barns of Samuel Martin, Thomas E. Mefford and John W. Liggett, giving the owners notice to not move their tobacco under penalty of having their barns burned.

In some instances tobacco was thrown down on the floors trampled and broken up and scattered about. The worst outrage in this matter was to a crop in Perry Cahill's barn on Straight Creek.
